

Hello all, and welcome. I'm Karla from the financial education team at Golden 1 Credit Union.

Valentine's Day, a day full of love, friendship, and uhhhh gifts!!!

Well, if you like to save money as much as I do, and you're watching this video so I assume you do, you might want to find a way to celebrate this holiday of love while also giving some extra love to your wallet.

Here are 3 easy and money saving Valentine's Day ideas.

Number one:

Enjoy a candle light dinner at home.

Find your favorite recipe and have a fun night of cooking and eating with your significant other. It will be much cheaper than ordering take out and such a fun way to connect.

I'll let you decide who has to do the dishes afterward.

Tip number 2:

Unplug. Oops.

After the hustle and bustle of the last holiday season, relaxing and unplugging might be exactly what you need. Take a leisurely drive to a memorable location or why not try a bike ride and a picnic to finish it off.

And finally, tip number 3: The final and most important tip.

Don't stress on the gifts. The most memorable gifts come from the heart. Some DIY ideas can be a coupon book you make for your significant other or how about a favorite memories slide show you can watch together.

Bonus fun tip try a fun trivia night where you ask questions about each other.

What is my idea of a fancy dinner? No, not steak and lobster. Mac and Cheese. It's mac and cheese.

We hope you loved these Valentine's Day tips as much as we loved making them for you. So, go on and make your Valentine's Day special by showing those around you that you care and by showing a little extra care for your budget.
