

Working with a golden 1 homeland advisor was so easy. He made us feel really comfortable, and, you know, laid out the process.

We have access to the top real estate agents in the market and they actually gave us a credit back towards our closing cost. He was very personable, and we really, really felt like we were being supported the whole process.